NAMAL ACQUIRES DEGREE AWARDING INSTITUTE STATUS

In April of 2008 Namal College was founded based on the vision of creating a center of excellence. Today after 10 years we have achieved a major milestone in capturing the essence of this vision. Degree Awarding Institute (DAI) status has been conferred to Namal and the name has been changed to Namal Institute. This is the beginning of a new chapter for the entire Namal Family. Namal Institute is now formally recognized as an independent institute of higher education in the private sector with the authority to offer its own degree. Namal envisions to be a leading institute of higher education in Pakistan. With our commitment towards excellence and the unending support of all 'Friends of Namal' we hope to achieve this vision.

Q1. Why have you chosen Namal as an organization to contribute your time and money to?

The vision of Namal is what attracted me to it. InshaAllah it will grow to be a Knowledge City like Oxford and Cambridge.

Q2. How does Namal contribute to a brighter future of Pakistan?

Namal selects its students purely on merit and imparts education free of cost to 97% of them. These boys and girls able to sustain themselves. I met a student who was studying Computer Science. Her father is a tractor driver for some Zamindar. She has 5 siblings but she was good at studies and the rest laboured to educate her. She got good grades and was selected purely on merit to receive higher education at Namal. Just imagine when she graduates and gets employed, she will elevate the whole family structure. I believe contribution for Namal is the best as it is committed to impart education to the needy thus eliminating poverty and ignorance throughout Pakistan.

Q3. What message will you give to others pertaining to Namal?

Contribute to Namal for a better education for the young generation and thus for a better Pakistan.
